Story Pitch - Videogame RPG

Dorothy is a runaway that fell asleep on her cross country bus and woke up at the last stop, the Emerald City. She has to ride the broken down Yellow line on the subway all the way to Mayor Oz.

Dorothy is a Kansas farm girl that leads a simple life on the farm after having graduated Highschool in her small rural town, but she has never quite fit in with the other people her age in her small town. She has a falling out with her parents after they catch her kissing a girl out behind the barn, and she hitches a ride on a cross country bus. She fell asleep on her cross country bus and woke up at the last stop, the Emerald City. She has to ride the Yellow line on the subway all the way to Mayor Oz to turn in the Emerald Necklace she found the trash at the bus stop for reward money.

The yellow line continuously breaks down forcing her to get off at every station and explore the area on the branch off line while it gets fixed. She meets a helpful friend on each branch before making it to the Emerald Hall where she finds out she has to have an invitation to the annual fundraiser ball to get in and meet Mayor Oz. The Wicked Woman that lives in West Castle has fake invitations that can get Dorothy inside, so she and her friends go to get some.

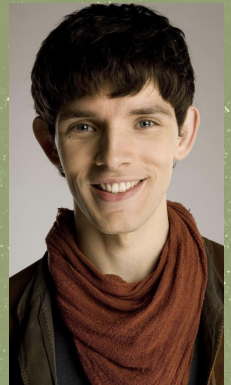

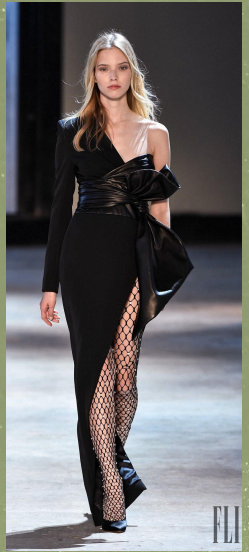

The Wicked Woman tricks them and pins all her illegal crimes on the gang and they are taken to Emerald Hall to be interrogated. Dorothy breaks out and finds Oz, convincing him that she and her friends aren't responsible for the crimes and turns in the necklace. Dorothy gets the reward money as well as compensation money. Her parents arrive at Emerald Hall after seeing her on the news during her arrest, and reunite with Dorothy.

World Map

This is a subway map of Emerald City that showcases the prominent lines that branch off of the main line. All the line are color coded and the majority tie into the system via the Yellow Line.

Dorothy Gale

Dorothy fled from her home in Kansas after she was caught kissing a girl behind the diner in her small town. Dorothy had recently graduated highschool and was deciding if she wanted leave her home and go to college or stay on the farm with her family. Her goal is to take the Famous Emerald necklace she found and return it to Mayor Oz for reward money.

Lionel Phobya

Lionel Phobya lives and works in a part of town that all the Emerald City citizens call “Night Alley”. It’s one of the Art Districts in the city that has a lot of nighttime shows, hence the name. Lionel works as a drag queen at a smaller bar near the subway station, but he dreams of having the confidence to work at The Night Alley Club, named after the area’s nickname. He’s a timid man out of costume only really find his courage when he get to strut in his platform boots.

Crow Strawmen

Crow lives in Cornfeld, the agricultural part of Emerald City. He's about the same age as Dorothy with only just having become an adult. He grew up on his family's farm and often spent time in the communal garden tending to the flowers and apiary. He yearns for a larger role in his community to help stop the conversion of gardens and farms into urban utility spaces but his tendency to focus on the little things and hyperfixate makes him seem unintelligent and forgetful so no one listens to him

The Wicked Woman

The Wicked Woman is a con-woman that runs the black market of Emerald City. Dorothy and Co. first meet her in order to acquire fake passes to get into Emerald Hall where Mayor Oz is hosting his party. The Wicked Woman takes this opportunity to pin some her crimes on the unsuspecting group, leading them to be captured once in the Emerald Hall.
